

dy. B.

Treasury Department,

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,

Washington, D. C. September 1, 1885.

Superintendent of Mint.
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of the 24th ultimo, relative to ordnance and ordnance stores, you are requested to cause an inquiry to be made as to the missing carbine.

The records of the Department show, as per receipt of Mr. A. L. Snowden, that 20 Springfield carbines were received at the office of the Superintendent of the United States Mint, Philadelphia, January 15, 1880, while your report dated August 12, 1885, states that you only received nineteen from your predecessor.

You will be further advised as to an additional issue of arms and ammunition.

Very respectfully,
Chas E Coon
Assistant Secretary

G.V.R.
Y.

Treasury Department,
Office of the Secretary,
Washington, D.C.,
September 1, 1885

Superintendent of Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Sir:

Referring to your letter of the 24th ultimo, relative to ordnance and ordnance stored, you are requested to cause an inquiry to be made as to the missing carbine.

The records of the Department show, as per receipt of Mr. A.L. Snowden, that 20 Springfield carbines were received at the office of the Superintendent of the United States Mint, Philadelphia, January 15, 1880, while your report dated August 12, 1885, states that you only received nineteen from you predecessor.

You will be further advised as to an additional issue of arms and ammunition.

Very respectfully,
Chas. E. Coon
Assistant Secretary